TEST TEXT

English: Life in the city is full of activity. Early in the morning hundreds of people rush out of their homes in the manner ants do when their nest is 1> broken. Soon the streets are full of traffic. Shop [Shops] and offices open,
 1> students flock to their schools and the d [day] work begins. The city now throb with activity, and it is full of noise. Hundreds of sight-seers, tourists and others visit many places of interest in the city while businessmen from various parts of the world arrive to transact business.

Then towards evening, the offices and day schools begin to close. Many of the shops too close. There is now a rush for buses and other means of 1> transport. [transport.] Everyone seems to be in a hurry to reach home. As a result of this rush, many accidents occur. One who has not been to the city before finds it hard to move about at this time. Soon, however, there is almost no activity in several parts of the city. These parts are usually the business centres.

1> With the coming of night, another kind of s [activity] begins. The streets are now full of colorful lights. The air is cooler and life becomes more leisurely. People now seek entertainment.
